Institut Paul Bocuse

Alliance Promotion 2015

"This program gave me the opportunity to be exposed to multiple food cultures and to see the different ways of working with similar products. At the end of the program, I knew that I had dozens of places in the world where I would be welcome to visit.

And I did the choice to integrate the Culinary Master at Institut Paul Bocuse to develop my expertise."

School Presentation

Institut Paul Bocuse follows in the heritage of innovation and global expansiveness set out by two extraordinary visionaries - Paul Bocuse, "Chef of the Century", Founder of the school in 1990 and Gérard Pélisson, Co-founder of Accor Group and Chairman since 1998. Guided by the inspiration of these two world famous figures, Institut Paul Bocuse welcomes 1000 students from 50 nationalities driven by operational agility and high level managerial competencies to prepare them to the best careers around the world.

For more than 25 years, our intensive programs and needs-based specializations respond to the demands of today's industry and compare favorably with leading programs internationally. Tomorrow's leaders will have to be equipped with the most advanced management competencies but culinary, foodservice and hospitality education will also have to focus on developing creativity and innovation. We prepare our students to design, develop and execute the new concepts and lifestyle brands that define today's increasingly three-dimensional offer.

International standard of excellence for the hospitality profession, Institut Paul Bocuse provides creative solutions to the industry through ground-breaking research, expert consulting and continuing education and, most importantly, through management education at Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral levels.

Institut Paul Bocuse formed the Alliance by Institut Paul Bocuse in 2004. Today, this unique alliance covers 22 partners in 22 countries, all among the world's top Hospitality Management, Foodservice Management & Culinary Arts schools.
