Message from the Director

"The Institut Paul Bocuse Worldwide Alliance is aligned to ITE's vision to forge partnerships with leading culinary and hospitality institutes to share and exchange the skills and knowledge, and develop benchmark education programs.

The students that undergo the Worldwide Alliance program are given the exceptional opportunity to meet with other youths from member countries around the world, developing deep friendships, learning and living together, thus expanding their understanding of different cultures and interpersonal relationships.

The Worldwide Alliance has enabled member institutions to forge relationships at a deeper level through staff and student exchanges. The Worldwide Alliance has grown over the years to include more members from more countries creating further mind-share and expanding its outreach."

Mong Song Goh, Principal of Institute of Technical Education
