School Presentation

Le Monde Institute of Hotel & Tourism Studies has been founded by professionals with years of experience in Tourism, Hospitality and Gastronomy. Le Monde Institute is housed in a building complex in Moschato, Athens. Facilities are composed with numerous specialized laboratories, such as professional gastronomy labs, wine tasting labs and even fully equipped computer labs. An updated library is also available to students and graduates.

The mission of Le Monde Institute is to offer students quality learning programs by experienced professionals in order graduates to achieve valued recognition in the Tourism Industry globally. In this way, the school enjoys the collaboration of professors with extensive experience in hotel management education, so as to provide high quality courses that meet the modern needs of tourism businesses. The education provided to Le Monde Institute's students combines theoretical teaching with laboratory monitoring. Indeed, 50% of the teaching hours of the technical modules are performed in laboratory facilities.

Programs offered:

- Chef - Professional Food Production (2 years)
- Pastry Chef - Professional Confection Production (2 years)
- Hotel Management (2 years)
- Tourism Management - Travel Agent (2 years)

Besides these educational programs, Le Monde Institute offers students unique internships and placement opportunities. In this way, Le Monde Institute joined the Alliance by Institut Paul Bocuse in 2007 in order to give students the opportunity to learn French cuisine and acquire new skills, and allow exchanges of best practices with world's top Hospitality Management and Culinary Arts schools.

Le Monde Institute also enjoys the privilege of being the only Institute of Hotel & Tourism Studies in Greece certified member of the United Nations World Tourism Organization-THEMIS Foundation (UNWTO- THEMIS Foundation). The school is also member of the Association of Greek Tourism Enterprises (SETE) and the Hellenic Association of Travel & Tourist Agencies (HATTA). Each of its programs is accredited by the Ministry of Education, Lifelong Learning and Religious Affairs and the United Nations World Tourism Organization-THEMIS Foundation (UNWTO-THEMIS Foundation).
