Message from the Director

"Following the trend of evolution into internationalization and globalization, upgrading the quality of vocational education to meet the international requirement has become an urgent direction of nurturing talents for Taiwan.

The establishment of partnerships with world's top Hospitality Management & Culinary Arts schools from Institut Paul Bocuse Worldwide Alliance is one of powerful tools to share, develop, and work together on the future direction of hospitality and culinary arts education.

This Worldwide Alliance also provides opportunities for NKUHT students such as having intercultural understanding and furthering academic development, while at the same time being prepared for challenges of globalization. It is so grateful to have this opportunity to work closely with the Worldwide Alliance to share experience and commitment."

Chi-Yeh Yung, Director of National Kaohsiung University of Hospitality and
